

Today!, today, today!

...we celebrate thanking God for the life of this great woman Maria Antonia Paris y Riera. 200 Years ago in a small town Vallmoll close to Tarragona in Spain, she was born, daughter of Francisco Paris and Teresa Riera. Her life as woman, christian, religious and Foundress of the Congregation of Claretian Missionary Sisters is inspiring not only our missionary consecration but also the life of all those who come to know her and get in touch with her work and message.

We thank God as we gather in fraternal joy in communities, apostolic centers, sisters, friends, collaborators...in various places all over the world.

We post from Reus remembering each one in this very place. Follow us in the program.

Happy day for all!
