

There are no translations available.

"The Grace of the Holy Spirit may be always in our hearts. Amen. May the light of the Holy Spirit enlighten our understanding and may keep us in His Grace...."

With these and other s imilar words Maria Antonia París begins often her letters inviting to place the whole attention in following the inspiration of the Consolator. We too ask His light in this very time for the whole Congregation, time of discernment and decisions of Restructuring process.

We wish each other to keep open the heart and mind, readiness to follow His inspirations. Blessed Pentecost!