

On 29th of September we have begun the III Congress of the Claretian Family Educators in Bangalore (India). There participate 93 people: Claretian Missionaries - fathers and sisters, Missionaries of Claretian Institution and lay claretians. With great joy Fr. James Kannanthamam, cmf teh Provincial of Bangalore has welcome all. We have begun presenting the process of the Congress. The reality of and the statistics of all the claretian schools in the world The coordinators of the continents have exposed the reality of each part and after that Fr. Miguel Ángel Velasco, cmf Gneeral Prefect of Apostolate presented the introducing theme prepared with Ascencion Redondo our general Prefect of Apostolate: it was about the inspiration of Claret, M. Paris and Fr Pujol in reference to the education. In the context of the reality of India we reflect and prospect on the managment and charismatic teams in our schools.

teh different experiences from all over the world presneted during sessions enrich and enlighten this research. From our claretian sisters' centers we are 11 lay collaborators and 8 sisters. The Congress continues till October 5th.

