The Claretian sisters join the program of the first World Day of Reflection and Prayer Against Human Trafficking.

In Rome the prayer service in the Basilca of Santi Apostoli (on Feb 6th) and later in the Mass celebrated in the day of the Memory of Saint Josephine Bakitha. Our community participated in the events together with many religious and organizations to manifest against all kind of slavery. Following the message of Pope Francis for the 48th Day of Peace (1st of january 2015) we would like "to illuminate the darkness caused by everything that exploits life for profit; to give hope to those who live the drama of trafficking, so that they can feel they are not alone; to transform mind and heart, breaking the crust of superficiality and indifference that prevents us from recognizing every person as a brother and sister". (cf. Fides)

Join us too!

http://a-light-against-human-trafficking.info/